

RECEIPT SOLUTIONS

Iconex® Financial Paper Rolls

Improve efficiency, reduce cost and simplify supply chain

Iconex receipt solutions improve receipt printing so that you can expect a smooth process due to increased system uptime with fewer media related failures and service charges.

Iconex invented the register receipt more than 130 years ago and maintains FSC and ISO certified manufacturing locations around the world.

As the world's largest manufacturer of quality receipt solutions, you can be confident that we have the industry expertise to meet your demanding requirements and provide you with the receipt solutions you need, when and where you need them.

Our unique paper certification process ensures consistent paper quality and means increased system uptime due to fewer media related failures.

Iconex certified paper will reduce costly service calls and replacement of prematurely worn-out print heads, cutters and other components. Plus, our certified paper will also ensure consistent, high density printed check images and legible printed characters.

Iconex converts BPA-free and phenol-free rolls and offers only California Proposition 65 complaint thermal paper. When you purchase receipt paper from Iconex, you can rest assured that you are Prop 65 compliant.

From simple to complex receipt applications, we have you covered with our stock and custom color-printed receipt solutions. We also offer a range of papers with varying archival life so you can simplify your supply chain and order all your receipt products from one source.
