Iconex® RFID Inventory Management

Optimize restaurant operations and enhance inventory systems

Iconex RFID labels enable store operations to simplify inventory related daily tasks to focus where it matters most: food quality and customer service. The RFID technology transforms manual data collection with digital automation to provide real-time access to data.

Gain inventory control with comprehensive supply chain traceability

Act on food freshness, safety, and quality to reduce risk and food waste.

Increases expiration date visibility and accountability

Mitigate human error, save time managing inventory and rotating stock.

Reduce inventory cycle counting to seconds

A quick scan automatically logs on-hand inventory for store operations to act upon.

Compatible with existing restaurant equipment and operations

RFID embeds into traditional labels, retaining human readable elements and barcodes.

Compliments existing scanners in restaurants

Requires only a minimal incremental investment.
